John, Joseph, daughters Elizabeth Ironmonger Collier, Frances and Sally; "to my mother-in-law Ann Collier, of King and Queen county, the part of that tract that was given me by my grandfather Charles Collier, of King and Queen," sister-in-law Martha Gaines. Appoints George Morriss and David Crawford executors. Witnesses Thomas Harris, Stephen Harris and — (name faded).

The original will is in the hands of Mrs. Walter S. Osborne, of Mason county, Ky. She is descended from Thomas Collier, oldest son of John. Patrick Henry, as governor of the commonwealth, granted to Thomas Collier for military services, as captain in the Revolution, 3,000 acres in Mason county, Ky., on a part of which some of his descendants live. He married Mary Dabney, of Hanover county.

The papers of a suit preserved in the clerk's office in Williamsburg show that Francis Gaines, of King and Queen county, made his will and died in 1774, leaving nine children, Francis, Catherine, wife of Charles Collier, Mary Spencer, Hannah, Thomas, Harry, Betty, Ann and Patty Gaines. He made his widow Betty Gaines and brother Robert executors.

III. Colliers of Surry county: There are numerous wills of this family on record in Surry and Brunswick counties.

KENNER FAMILY.

1 RICHARD¹ KENNER married Elizabeth, daughter of Mathew Rodham (deed of gift recorded in Northumberland county, 1664). Her sister Hannah married Capt. Christopher Neale. He was burgess in 1691, with rank of captain, burgess in 1701 with rank of major. He had issue: 2 Rodham, 3 Richard, 4 Francis, 5 John, 6 Matthew, who had Francis; 7 Elizabeth, born December 18, 1681, married Des Buttes; 8 Frances, married Spellman; 9 Hannah, married Thomas Crallé.

2 RHODAM² KENNER (Richard¹) was born March 23, 1671, and his will was proved in Northumberland August 21, 1706. He is styled Capt. Rod Kenner, where he also appears as member of the House of Burgesses from Northumberland county in 1697. He was also justice and sheriff of Northumberland. He married Hannah Fox, born July 25, 1671, daughter of Capt. David Fox and Hannah Ball, and had issue, 10 Elizabeth, 11 Hannah, born
